

I understand that Sinclair Broadcasting is requiring all their stations to air a blatantly political anti-Kerry piece in the weeks preceding the election. This is wrong and an abuse of our airwaves. If they are indeed allowed to do this, they should be required to give the Kerry campaign equal time, perhaps by showing the new movie about Kerry in Vietnam, "Going Upriver." If they refuse, then the FCC should look hard at license renewal time to see if Sinclair should continue to be granted time on our public airwaves.
